3. Update: Durban Port Situation

Further to the Newsflash sent on the 18th, operations at Durban Port are returning to normal. The system seems to be stable and trucks are being loaded, but please note that they are still working through the backlog and turn-around time for trucks is 23 – 24 hours at this point.

Please see attached snipping from today's Mercury on this subject.

4. Cape Town Port Wind-bound

We are experiencing delays at Cape Town Port, with heavy winds and fog delaying the offloading and releasing of containers. Our team is monitoring the situation and is in contact with any client directly affected by the delays.

We thank you for your continued support and partnership
