1. Berthing Delays at Durban Port

This week has seen a significant number of vessels where berthing slots have moved out considerably. There is no formal explanation provided by port authorities but some vessels are waiting 4 to 5 days to berth. We are monitoring this carefully and will keep you updated but caution that we are noting longer delays to berth than usual.

2. Tariff Amendments

The attached notifications from Transnet refers, safeguard duties have been imposed on tariff heading 7318.15.41.
