

17 August 2020

Congestion at Durban Port

Please note that we are again experiencing delays at Durban Port, the cause is a combination of bad weather and striking employees at the warehouses around the port blocking the entrances. The police have been asked to assist and we hope that the situation will improve shortly. Please bear in mind that there may be delays in the collection of containers from the port, any clients whose cargo is affected will be notified by our Operations Team.

Photo below of Umbilo Road:

