Dear Customers

Again sorry for all the reading but it is the only way to keep you updated with all the latest developments. Please see attached and important feedback document of minutes of the BUSA meeting which is very informative and you can see many of the issues we have been challenging are getting attention. Please read through this carefully it's the only way to keep you updated. You will note a Special Rebate opportunity that has been put in place for certain products exempting them from Duty and Vat under Item 2. Immediately following this newsflash Graeme will be sending more detail in this regard for your to review and consider and how one would apply if relevant.

Please pass on these newsflashes to management in your team not on our usual distribution mail chains.
